Special thanks to the Ohio River

44th Annual Meeting.

Ohio River Chapter 2011-2012 Grant
Project ~ Design and Construction of a Replica Keelboat.

Greetings Friends,

Two hundred and six years ago, on September 23, 1806, Lewis and Clark returned to St. Louis. After two and a half years away, some citizens had given them up as lost or dead. Nevertheless, news of their return sparked celebrations. The captains busied themselves with writing a detailed letter to President Jefferson recounting their expedition and setting forth the successes and setbacks of the journey. The captains began preparing their journals for publication, thanking the men for their service, and reconciling their accounts. Like the captains did so long ago, it is time for us to prepare our report for publication, thank the men and women who provide invaluable service to our organization, and provide valuable data in this 2011-2012 annual report of the Lewis and Clark Trail Heritage Foundation.

The year began with an exciting meeting in Clarksville. New leaders stepped in to fill the void left by our predecessors. I am grateful to Bob Gatten (NC), Margaret Gorski (MT), Jerry Garrett (MO), Larry McClure (OR), and Dan Sturdevant (MO) for agreeing to serve in various capacities on the Executive Committee. The Board of Directors added fresh faces to complete the nine at-large positions: Ken Jutzi (CA), Barb Kubik (WA), Ron Laycock (MN), Gary Moulton (NE), Philippa Newfield (CA), Jim Rosenberger (WI), Clay Smith (MT), Bill Stevens (SD), and Richard Williams (NE). I extend my thanks to the 32 Chapter Presidents and their officers for their service and I express my gratitude to the Committee Chairs and their teams for the terrific work they have done and are doing.

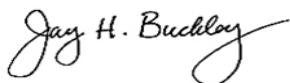

We thank Don Peterson for his yeoman service at our headquarters and Sherman Library and Archives in Great Falls, Montana, while it was undergoing a transition. We hired a new Executive Director, Lindy Hatcher (VT), to fill the vacancy left by Stephen Forrest and she has hit the ground running. We also hired Caroline Patterson (MT), as the new editor of We Proceeded On. Cathie Erickson has also done a wonderful job as bookkeeper. We thank them for their energy and enthusiasm and look forward to building relationships through the years.

We welcomed more than 50 new members to the organization, bringing our membership total close to 1,200. We are the second-largest historic trails association in the nation, yet we need everyone's help to grow. We encourage chapters to reach out to members whose dues have lapsed to reactivate them. We are also pleased that we have been able to distribute over $50,000 to 16 chapters for 20 trail stewardship projects from the Lewis and Clark Trail Stewardship Endowment: A National Council of the Lewis and Clark Expedition Bicentennial Legacy Project. We encourage chapters to apply for these annual grants and use these worthwhile projects as opportunities to share the Lewis and Clark story, preserve the trail, reach out to and recruit new friends in their communities, grow local chapter and national LCTHF memberships, develop chapter leadership, and fulfill our motto as "keepers of the story - stewards of the trail."

The new members, chapters, and leaders have infused energy and enthusiasm into the organization. Combined with the experience and passion of our existing membership, and with the coordination of our partners, we are on the cusp of some exciting opportunities. We have pared down our expenses to live within our means. Nevertheless, our operating budget to pay for WPO and the Executive Director is still dependent upon dues and contributions from members and friends. Please consider ways you can help build the future by stepping up to serve, recruiting members, attending the national and regional meetings, and contributing to the LCTHF or to one of the restricted funds in the endowment that provides income for the future.

We have renewed partnerships and worked on relationships with our federal, private, and tribal partners. Superintendent Mark Weekley of the Lewis and Clark National Historic Trail (National Park Service) has been a faithful supporter as has Elizabeth Casselli, Director of the Lewis and Clark Interpretive Center in Great Falls (USDA Forest Service). We thank our other federal, tribal, and private partners throughout the country. We are pleased to announce a new educational partnership with the Lewis and Clark Interpretive Center. When all of us work together, we are able to accomplish more than by working alone. Our volunteers provided 128,000 hours of service and partnership support valued at $4,808,766 in helping us fulfill our mission: "We preserve, promote, and teach the diverse heritage of Lewis and Clark for the benefit of all people." Thank you for your ongoing contributions toward creating a lasting Lewis and Clark legacy.

In Peace and Friendship,

Jay H. Buckley, President of the Lewis and Clark Trail Heritage Foundation

Administrative and Library Volunteers: A heart-felt thank you to our new and returning volunteers working in the William P. Sherman Library and Archives for clocking in over 500 volunteer hours this fiscal year. Sue Buchel helped volunteers inventory and accession books in June. Don Peterson continues to wow guests and members with his invaluable knowledge. Lindy Hatcher is proceeding on...

Office Volunteers: Lynn and Doug Davis returned to Great Falls for three weeks this spring to sort and archive office files into our new filing system. A sincere thanks to them for their hard work—clocking in over 280 volunteer hours for us. Thanks to Ida Johnson for answering phones during vacations and taking inventory of all non-book items.

We Proceeded On: Editor Caroline Patterson developed a great system for producing timely *WPO*s for the Foundation. In April, we met with our printer, removed the dust cover to save $500 per issue. This summer, Wendy Raney accepted the position of Chair for the WPO Editorial Advisory Board.

Website: Several new features were added to our website: Under publications: <http://www.lewisandclark.org/LCTHF2/PUBLICATIONS.html>, you can view and download all editions of WPO from 1974 to 2007. Don Peterson and volunteer Paavo Hall scanned them and Ken Jutzi uploaded them - great teamwork. You can view and download a listing of all feature articles in pdf, Word, and Excel formats. We added a comprehensive history of our Foundation under the Foundation History section along with the capability to renew a membership, purchase a gift membership for someone, make a donation, or join the Foundation under the Join/Donate section.

New Partnerships: The Lewis and Clark Foundation, formerly the Lewis & Clark Interpretive Center Foundation, has secured a grant to take the Great Falls Field Investigations program across the nation. The LCTHF has partnered with them to bring the program to middle schools along key riverfronts in Washington, Oregon, Nebraska, Missouri, and South Dakota.

Signs: We are putting LCTHF back on the map! Lindy is working with Garmin to list the LCTHF office and library in their database. Two members gave $100 donations each to purchase the lettering above the office door. The California Chapter paid for the lobby directional sign and the Portage Route Chapter paid for the William P. Sherman Library and Archives sign. Thank you all for contributing.

DonorPerfect Online: We have a full year vested in our new donor software. Thank you Ken Jutzi for all of your hard work and for making the three-day trip to Great Falls. It was most helpful to strategize and train in-person. We also negotiated the service contract down by $2,500 next fiscal year.

Special Thanks to Don Peterson and the Board, especially Margaret Gorski, Clay Smith, Ken Jutzi, Jim Rosenberger, Bob Gatten, Philippa Newfield, and Jay Buckley for altruistically mentoring me to ensure a smooth transition as your new executive director.

~ Lindy Hatcher

2011-2012 Bicentennial Trail Stewardship Grants

The Bicentennial Trail Stewardship Advisory Committee announced the following grants in 2011-2012:

California Chapter: Partnered with Roosevelt County Library to create educational and artistic programs at the library for adults and children. The programs tell the story of Lewis and Clark and include input from members of the Fort Peck Reservation tribes and incorporate the history and natural history of the Expedition with emphasis on the Corps' exploration of northeastern Montana.

Crest of the Rockies at the Platte Chapter: Completed a survey of the life, travels, and sites associated with Jean Baptiste Charbonneau during his time fur trapping in Wyoming and Colorado.

Encounters On the Prairie Chapter: Restored or replaced two Lewis & Clark interpretive signs in Fort Pierre.

George Drouillard Chapter: Restored murals and their frames and replaced Lewis and Clark markers.

Greater Metro St. Louis Chapter: Removed debris at the Lewis & Clark Boathouse Nature Center and developed a meandering path to a river outlook, planted native plants to attract wildlife, and installed signs.

Home Front Chapter: Constructed a "Learning Landscape" in the form of three gardens: Lucy Marks, Native American, and Quarry Trail; and provided educational landscaping for future building.

Jefferson River Canoe Trail Chapter: Developed Jefferson River Canoe Trail and Builder's Guide brochures.

Manitou Bluffs Chapter: Landscaped, maintained the trail, and reconstructed the Captain's Hill sign.

Missouri Kansas Riverbend Chapter: Identified important Missouri River sites and created a 20-minute movie, two to three minutes each site, to preserve and later compare the year 2012; also, may serve as a Lewis and Clark resource for the Kansas City Area Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Missouri Kansas Riverbend Chapter: Planning for installation of a webcam system to provide the opportunity for the world to view live streaming pictures of the Lewis & Clark Trail and to serve as a security measure.

National Capital Chapter: Commemorated Meriwether Lewis's several visits and references to Frederick, Maryland, during the early part of 1803.

Ohio River Chapter: Designed and reconstructed a replica of an Ohio River keelboat.

Ohio River Chapter: Placed 14 signs along the Big Bone Creek Trail to explain the roles of Lewis and Clark at Big Bone Lick State Park.

Oregon Chapter: Planning directional and interpretive signs for Nichaqli Village Monument.

Oregon Chapter: Revised Lewis and Clark interpretive flyer on Oregon and Washington.

Philadelphia Chapter: Reprinted their Walk in the Footprints of Lewis and Clark in Philadelphia brochure.

Rochejhone Chapter: Conducted initial archaeological investigations on Clark's Canoe Camp site.

Sgt. Floyd Tri-State Chapter: Replaced flag at the Floyd Monument.

Sgt. Floyd Tri-State Chapter: Repaired and replaced flooring at Lewis & Clark Visitors/Educational Center.

Washington State Chapter: Purchased and planted native trees and bushes the Corps of Discovery found in the area, which are also important to the Chinookan-speaking people.

Lewis and Clark Trail Heritage Foundation, Inc. Endowment Funds:

- ♦ Bronze Fund – In 1976 and 1986, sales of Robert Scriver’s sculptures, “Capt. Lewis and ‘Our Dog’ Scannon” and “Capt. Wm. Clark – ‘Map Maker’” funded the Foundation’s first restricted fund to provide for the publication We Proceeded On. Each year, 5% of the fund’s value goes to the Foundation’s budget for WPO’s operations.
- ♦ Lewis and Clark Fellow Fund – In 1987, LCTHF sold prints of Robert F. Morgan’s painting, “Take the Horses to the Mandans,” to provide for an executive secretary. In 1991, Pres. Winifred George started another fund to provide for the compensation of an executive director. The board combined these two funds in 1995. Each year, 5% of the value of this fund goes to the Foundation’s budget for the compensation of an executive director.
- ♦ “Dar” Burroughs/Bicentennial Education Fund – In 1991, William and Margaret Norris donated funds in the name of Margaret’s father, Raymond Darwin “Dar” Burroughs, author of The Natural History of the Lewis and Clark Expedition, to provide for youth education and educational materials. In 2007, the royalties and logo fees paid by Lewis and Clark Bicentennial-authorized vendors were donated to the Foundation for Lewis and Clark educational programs. The board combined the funds since they both promoted similar educational goals. Only the income and interest may be used annually or held and designated for appropriate expenditures at a later date.
- ♦ Robert Shattuck Fund – In 2003, the board restricted the funds donated by the late Robert Shattuck, long-time member from California. The funds were used for monetary grants during the Bicentennial years with the balance held for the Foundation’s monetary grants program of which 5% of the balance is awarded in many years.
- ♦ Leandra Zim Holland Memorial Research Fund – In 2003, the Holland Fund was established to provide academic research grants on Lewis and Clark subjects or related Native American topics. The majority of the fund came from the proceeds of the sale of Feasting and Fasting with Lewis & Clark authored by the late Leandra Holland.
- ♦ Third Century Fund – In 2007, at the conclusion of the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial, restricted donations were solicited to provide for the general operation of the Foundation. Each year, 5% of the value of this fund goes to the Foundation’s budget for general operations.
- ♦ Lewis & Clark Trail Stewardship Endowment: A National Council of the Lewis & Clark Expedition Bicentennial Legacy Project Fund – In 2007, the Foundation received the proceeds from the surcharge on the sale of Lewis and Clark commemorative coins by the U.S. Mint for trail stewardship activities. Each year, 5% of the value of this fund goes to the Foundation’s trail stewardship projects upon the advice of the Bicentennial Trail Stewardship Advisory Committee.
- ♦ Lewis & Clark Interpretive Sign Maintenance Grant Fund (Montana) – In 2006, the Montana Lewis and Clark Bicentennial Commission provided funds for a legacy grants program for Montana organizations to conduct sign repair and maintenance. The funds are to be distributed at a rate of 10% each year with any remaining balance at year’s end rolling over to the next year. The fund is to sunset after 10 years of distribution.
- ♦ Past Presidents’ Operating Fund – In 2002, at the request of then-President Larry Epstein, the board of directors restricted certain donations to the Foundation for special projects. This fund was renamed in 2012 to distinguish it from other funds. There are no restrictions as this is a board-established fund.
