Appreciation Award

Presented to

Lorna Hainesworth

In recognition of your outstanding historical “detective work” associated with the discovery of Lewis’ June 6, 1803 letter, as well as your exemplary efforts in sharing your discovery with others at gatherings in Arizona, California, Oregon, and Washington, many miles from your home. Your efforts have brought credit not only to you but also to our Foundation in its endeavors to preserve and perpetuate the lasting historical worth of the Lewis and Clark Expedition.

Thank You!
