Fall 2015 Regional LCTHF Meeting Dedicated to the Loving Memory of Ruth Newfield

*As the local host chapter, The Encounters On The Prairie, South Dakota Chapter has dedicated the 2015 Regional Meeting of the LCTHF to the Loving Memory of our Lewis & Clark and Mount Rushmore Loving friend Ruth Newfield.
Many of us had the opportunity to experience LCTHF Annual and Regional meetings with Ruth as she accompanied her daughter Philippa Newfield and her Son-In-Law Phillip Gordon to many Lewis & Clark meetings and gatherings.
When our EOTP Chapter last hosted our 2012 Fall Regional LCTHF Meeting in Fort Pierre, SD “To Commemorate the 200th Anniversary of the Reported Death of Sacagawea @ Fort Manuel” in present day South Dakota, Ruth told Philippa and Phillip that since they were traveling to South Dakota she wanted to visit Mount Rushmore Memorial for the first time in her life and had wanted to since she was a little girl growing up in Brooklyn, New York.
They joined her on an “Air and Road Trip to Mount Rushmore” and she loved it and expressed it to us when she joined us in Fort Pierre! We believe that all Americans especially who are able to make their own “Road Trip To Mount Rushmore: Our Trip To A Stone Faced Thomas Jefferson” should be as joyful as Ruth was.
We will be thinking of Ruth throughout our gathering in the Beautiful Black Hills of South Dakota at Mount Rushmore. She would have loved meeting and talking with Mr.
Jefferson, as we will October 17th! We invite you to join us!*
