Biographical Note:

G. Edward "Gus" Budde was known to most long-time Lewis and Clark enthusiasts. He was a Lewis and Clark aficionado who published a quarterly Lewis and Clark newsletter entitled, "The Lewis and Clark Trail Newsletter." He began his publication in the early 1970s. Over the years he learned a great deal about Lewis and Clark and uncovered Lewis and Clark related material.

Budde served on the Missouri Lewis and Clark Committee starting in 1965, and served as its public relations advisor. He served as the first secretary of the Lewis and Clark Trail Heritage Foundation (LCTHF) in 1970. He held the position again from 1972-1973. He was employed by the National Park Service in Washington, DC and at the Jefferson National Expansion Memorial in St. Louis.

He left LCTHF in 1974 when differences arose between him and many of his friends in the Foundation. He continued to publish his newsletter. Many LCTHF members continued to correspond with him and experience his extensive knowledge about the Lewis and Clark Expedition and the history of the American west.

Scope and Contents:

The Budde papers consist of materials accumulated during Gus Budde's term as publisher of the Lewis and Clark Trail Newsletter. The materials include correspondence, renewals of the newsletter, newspaper articles, photographs and postcards.

Bibliography

Lange, Robert E. "News Note." We Proceeded On 11, no. 2 (May 1985): 5.

Date is from "in the footsteps of L&C – the book I just gave the library. The 1969 LC Trail Commission Report also lists him as a Missouri LC Committee member. But I don't know his ending date on that since the committee continued after 1969. These should go in the bibliography?"
