Historical Note:

Thousands of Americans turned to the heart of their nation to celebrate Independence Day 2004. The cities of Kansas City, Missouri and Atchison and Leavenworth, Kansas played host to the sixth Lewis and Clark Bicentennial Signature Event, "Heart of America: A Journey Fourth." This event commemorated the 1803-06 Lewis and Clark Expedition's observance of Independence Day, July 4, 1804, near present day Atchison, Kansas.

The lead partners for the event are the cities of Atchison, Kansas, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and Kansas City, Missouri. Emilie Jester was the executive Director of Heart of America. MaryLee Sturdevant served as a volunteer during the events.

Scope and Contents:

Materials in this collection include records of the planning, coordination and execution of the sixth Lewis and Clark Bicentennial Signature Event, "Heart of America: A Journey Fourth." Most of the records are paper format. The first folder contains samples of materials handed out to familiarize attendees with the area, the event, and the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial as a whole. It includes correspondence and samples of the formats of the different materials. The collection including the involvement of different councils, marketing, fundraising, and budgeting. It contains records of executive committee meetings; executive director reports; the decision on the official site; and logo discussions. There is material about Congressional involvement, pre events, and the events for “Heart of America: A Journey Fourth” held in Leavenworth, Atchinson and Kansas City. There is material about other bicentennial events held in Platte County, Illinois, and Kentucky. The collection includes ads and publicity for the event. Non archival materials have been removed from the collection and added to the objects catalogs as accession number 2008.046.

Arrangement:

Since the materials relate to the planning for this event no series were needed. Most of the folders are titled and organized as submitted by Heart of America Executive Director, Emilie Jester. The arrangement of the folders is by function beginning with an introductory folder and ending with advertising. Three folders of information from other bicentennial signature events are arranged alphabetically at the end of the collection.
