Biographical Note:

Sheila Robinson was born November 27, 1920 and died June 23, 2015 in Bismarck, North Dakota. She was the youngest of three girls. She grew up on Elm Creek Ranch near Hebron and attended rural school for three years. She transferred to Hebron public school and attended Iowa State College in Ames. She graduated in 1942 with a degree in home economics. She married David Marshall Robinson in 1942 and has three children.

Sheila was an avid gardener and enjoyed photography, leather tooling and crafts. She attended most annual meetings of the Lewis and Clark Trail Heritage Foundation from 1968 to 2001. She traveled the country and gave presentations on Lewis and Clark as well as the Garrison Dam. She wrote Along the Lewis and Clark Trail in North Dakota in 1993. She was also interested in the history of the building of Garrison Dam and wrote Taming the Big Muddy on the subject. Sheila served on the Board of Directors of LCTHF for two terms from 1976-1983.

Scope and Contents:

This collection consists of materials accumulated by Sheila Robinson who was extremely active in the Lewis and Clark community in North Dakota. It is contained in three document boxes. The materials include correspondence, agendas from the annual meetings, handouts from the area, annual reports, press releases and correspondence between members. Commemorative pins were removed from the collection and are housed in with the rest of the objects collection. (see accession 2002.004). The photographs were removed to the Don Nell Visual Resource Collection. Newspapers have been removed from the archival collection and included in the William P. Sherman Library's Newspaper Collection.

Arrangement:

The collection is arranged chronologically representing annual meetings and correspondence from 1968-2001. The original order of the series was maintained.
